

More Than Housing . . . Hope

Jamie Snyder Winston & Strawn

Jamie Snyder joined the La Casa Norte Board of Directors in 2013.

Jamie is a corporate partner in Winston & Strawn's Chicago office. He concentrates his practice on debt financings, including corporate lending transactions, leveraged acquisitions, private equity financings, and securitizations.

He also has experience advising private equity firms and corporate borrowers in debt financings and general corporate matters.

Jamie's representative clients include leading regional, national, and international commercial and investments banks, non-bank financial institutions, and private equity firms in a wide variety of industries, as well as public and private corporations.

Jamie is a member of the Volunteer Winston Committee in the Chicago office of Winston & Strawn which focuses on coordinating community outreach events for the firm. He is also active in SparkChicago which provides mentoring opportunities for Chicago-area junior high school students.