

More Than Housing . . . Hope

Victoria Priola Tetzlaff Law Offices

Victoria Priola joined the La Casa Norte Board of Directors in 2012.

Victoria is currently serving as Senior Counsel with Tetzlaff Law Offices. A practicing attorney for seventeen years, her career includes serving as Chief of Staff for an Illinois Appellate Court Justice's campaign for a seat on the Illinois Supreme Court. She has a varied practice in state, federal and appellate courts including litigation and transactional work in the areas of business and commercial law, complex torts, professional liability, and real estate. Victoria represents a broad base of corporate clients as well as small businesses, governmental bodies, and individuals.

Victoria's volunteer activities include participating in the Streetwise Partners Young Adults Mentoring Program, the Professional Women's Club of Chicago, Chicago Public Schools Homeless Education Program, Chicago Park District's "The City that Works Out" campaign, and the Chicago Bar Association.

An avid health enthusiast, Victoria is a 3 time Ironman Triathlon Competitor, a Half-Ironman and Triathlon Competitor. She has run 16 national and international marathons, and is a Certified Yoga and Meditation Instructor.

Victoria obtained her Juris Doctorate from DePaul College of Law, with International Law studies at the University Of Florence School Of Law, and her bachelor's degree from Purdue University.